ARMISTICE SEASON OBSERVANCES

Harvest Supper Held in Town Hall Under Auspices of Legion and Auxiliary. Robert T. Bushnell to Give Address at Memorial Service on Sunday

A delicious and abundant supper, well served by efficient and obliging waitresses, the elaborately decorated town hall, good music, and a generous patronage by the public, all contributed to the success of the Harvest supper served last night in the Town hall, under the auspices of the Andover Post of the American Legion and its auxiliary.

The hall presented an unusually attractive appearance with its decorations of red and white bunting combined with forget-me-not blue, the American flag and those of the allied nations. Over the proscenium arch, was a white trellis covered with trailing vines of red roses and at the top of each window was a spray of oak leaves. The long tables were laden with good things to eat, baked beans, cold meats, potato salad, relishes, doughnuts, cheese and all kinds of pie and big yellow pumpkins held the fruits of the season.

There was a steady stream of people coming and going, between the hours of five and seven, although the tables were not crowded at any time. Music was furnished by Malcolm Lundgren's orchestra.

The waitresses were: Mrs. William J. Doherty, Mrs. C. J. Bailey, Mrs. Annie Davis, Mrs. Olin Richardson, Mrs. Horace Eaton, Mrs. Margaret Brown, Mrs. Douglas Hutcheson, Mrs. John Garde, Mrs. Joshua Hilton, Mrs. Robert Franz, Mrs. Edward Robie, Mrs. Catherine Eastwood, Mrs. Thaxter Eaton, Mrs. Ralph Berry, Misses Louisa Eaton, Moira Murphy, Alice Welch, Emma Cashan, Jennie Barrett, Mary Barrett, Marjorie Markey, Emily Markey, Edith Henderson, Isabel Sirois, Doris Hilton, Marie Sirois and Miss Cook.

The coffee pourers and others who assisted in serving were Joseph McCarthy, Ralph Berry, Austin Reed, Hermon Hilton, Loring Higgins, James Welch, James Fairweather, Thomas H. McElroy and William Rennie.

Those who had charge of the pies were Mrs. Charles Buchanan, Mrs. Charlotte Collins, Mrs. John Sullivan, Mrs. William Rennie and Mrs. Frank Foster.

A. E. Collings had charge of the meat. The supply room was in charge of Mrs. F. G. Cheney, assisted by Mrs. Stephen Gilliard, Mrs. George Carter, Mrs. Minnie Rodger, Mrs. John Alexander, Mrs. George Lawson.

Those who were busy in the kitchen included Mrs. John Henderson, Mrs. Harry Gouck, Mrs. William Henderson, Mrs. Thomas Dea, Mrs. P. H. Markey, Mrs. Timothy McCarthy, Frank Markey, Harry Hilton, Raymond Wilson and Wendell Kydd.

During the afternoon a sale of articles from the Disabled ex-Service Men's Exchange in charge of James C. Barry, was held in the lower town hall. The articles included tufted bed spreads, hand-woven neck scarves and baby blankets, Christmas cards, articles in leather, toys, dolls' furniture, bead work, and articles in silver.

The following committee was in charge: Mrs. John Henderson, chairman; Mrs. Frank Foster, Mrs. William Rennie, Mrs. Eva Dea, Mrs. Edith Berry, Mrs. John

A Little Out of the Way

But It Pays to Walk

Meet After Fifteen Years

Howard Hadley of North Main street, Shawsheen Village, and his older brother, George F. Hadley, now of Boston, are united after fifteen years of separation, during which neither had either seen or heard from the other. They last met in Manchester, N. H., fifteen years ago last spring, and since then George has traveled throughout this country and was in France during the war, while Howard has roamed throughout this country and Canada.

The happy reunion was the result of George's keen vision and memory. Each felt that the other was safe and sound in some little corner of the world and each hoped and prayed that they would meet once again.

Their prayers were answered and about

1.30 o'clock Monday afternoon, Howard happened to be standing in front of a little grocery store on South Union street waiting for a friend to come out of the store, when the long lost brother happened along in a sedan. To Howard, who noticed the driver of the car staring at him, it meant nothing, while to the driver, it meant so much that words failed him. Stopping the car as it had never stopped before, George stepped out, and their was a happy reunion.

Miss Campbell took four children to the Middleton Health Camp, where their expenses were paid by the local committee. All showed marked improvement in general condition and gain in weight. One of them received the highest recognition for behavior at camp.

Women's Club

The monthly meeting of the Shawsheen Village Women's club, will be held Monday evening, November 3, at 7.45, in Balmoral hall. Miss Mabel F. Knight will be the speaker and her subject will be "The American Indian."

Mrs. Calvin B. Robbins will be hostess.

Distilled Common Sense

The Dominion of Canada is alarmed, and its Board of Trade has just issued the following warning. This warning is earnestly submitted to the mature judgment of Andover's business men, and urge their cooperation in the attempt now being made to inject greater caution and restraint into our present method of appropriating town monies.

Canada business men seem to be getting worried over their country's burden of public debt. That is a fair inference from a circular issued by the Council of the Montreal Board of Trade and addressed to citizens generally. After asserting that the present per capita debt of the Dominion is $612, the circular continues:

"Part of every dollar you spend goes to pay interest on the public debt, and the bigger the debt grows, the more of your money it will take away from you."

"These large debts are the result of years of public spending beyond our means and borrowing money to do it. We could not help that during the war, but the war was ended more than five years ago and we are still doing it."

"The governments and the municipal councils do the borrowing and the spending, and often get poor value for the money, but the people do the paying back, and you will have to do your share."

"Sooner or later this reckless borrowing and spending must end, and the sooner the better, but only the elector can stop it."

"If you want your public affairs managed as sensible men handle their private affairs, getting good value for what they spend and doing without things they cannot afford; if you want the cost of living to come down, so that you will have for yourself more of what you earn, the remedy is in your hands. At elections — Dominion, Provincial and Municipal — see to it that the men you vote for understand what you want, and make sure that they will support the policy of reducing the public debt."

St. Bartholomew Massacre
This massacre of the Huguenots occurred April 24-25, 1572. It grew out of feuds in France between the house of Guise and the Roman Catholics on the one hand, the house of Conde and the Huguenots on the other. From the tower of the royal palace the signal was given for the carnival of blood, which lasted several weeks. Statistics concerning the number of deaths occasioned by the massacre of St. Bartholomew vary from 2,000 to 100,000.

Shawsheen Bowling

The Giants were the only team to clean up Monday night, in the Shawsheen Mill bowling league, taking four from the Senators. The Yankees and Cubs had an exciting match. The former lost the first string by a good margin, the second by one pin and won the third by two, losing the total by 35 pins. The Braves and Tigers split even. Babb of the Cubs carried off all the honors with a single of 119 and a total of 300.

LOSES TO WAYPOSET

Shawsheen Opens Auspiciously but Visitors Show Aggressive Front Led by Anderson

Shawsheen entertained Waypoiset Saturday at Balmoral field, in a National League game. The visitors were in great form and slipped over a rousing victory in the second period 4 to 2, after trailing at the interval 1-2. It was another great game that enthused approximately one thousand fans every minute of the play, which was stubbornly contested from start to finish.

Shawsheen opened at the very start of the first period most auspiciously. Torrance had to save two quick drives from Carrie, which aroused their supporters, but Torrance was found safe and Murdock handled a good one from Anderson at the other end.

It was a grand movement by the Shawsheen front rank that was just nipped in the bud by Simone, that brought much relief to Waypoiset and when Bushnell got away later and beat a couple of defenders, it was Torrance that brought off the grand save from the winger. Indeed Shawsheen was playing hard but when Smith missed a golden opportunity two minutes later, the crowd got a shock from a breakthrough when Anderson ploughed his way through and opened the scoring by beating Murdock with a right-foot drive that gave the goalie no chance.

With Shawsheen pressing, McLaughlin was penalized 25 yards out and Nixon placing well to Smith, the inside left, drove the ball in the net amid loud cheering from the home supporters.

The teams were now again on an even footing and hereabouts Nixon and Anderson collided, heads together and both were injured, but resumed after attention. Just before the interval, McMaster got away and put in what apparently appeared a good centre, but the English was on it and had Torrance grasping at the air as the ball curled in under the cross bar and lodged safely in the net. It was a dandy, and this success was greeted with loud cheering, which incidentally put Shawsheen in the lead at half-time 2 to 1.

The second half opened briskly with Waypoiset storming the Shawsheen goal and Ross passed back to Murdock for the goalie to return to Ross to effect a clearance. Edwards dashed down the line on the left and Whitehead conceded a corner for safety. Edwards taking the kick, drove hard just inside the near upright. Murdock grabbed at the ball but in so doing the leather got away from him and rested safely in the net for the equalizing goal.

The ball had no sooner been placed in the centre, than Waypoiset attacked and Duffie seizing his opportunity, drove the ball in the net with Murdock making a desperate but futile effort to save.

The visitors' left flank worked wonderfully and through the great assistance of Anderson, Whitehead was repeatedly beaten by Edwards who played the big part when he beat the back later, and put in a good centre for Anderson to take the ball on the go and beat Murdock with a left-foot drive.

Waypoiset now had the game well in hand, but Shawsheen tried hard to score and McMaster came close, when he dropped the ball on the crossbar to come back in the field of play. This was headed away by Simone.

Waypoiset pressed strongly, the front line being aggressive and ever dangerous, ably led by Anderson. From a corner kick, McMaster placed well for Torrance to make a great save from the melee in front of the goal mouth. At the other end, Reid got the better of Ross, and fired in a good drive for Murdock to save.

Waypoiset continued to have the best of matters from now on, and came out deserved winners of a good hard-fought game by four goals to two.

Truck Catches Fire
The fire department were called at 7.25 Monday evening, to Shawsheen square, where a truck bound for Newburyport and heavily laden with fruit had caught fire. It was extinguished with the aid of the local department. It is believed the tonnage of the truck was so great as to cause the brake bands to catch fire.

Boy Scouts
The Shawsheen Boy Scouts met last Friday evening in the Boy's club on Haverhill street with Scoutmaster Norman Allen in charge. Military drill and formation was held and games played and stories told by many of the boys.

Another meeting in the form of a Halloween party was held Wednesday instead of Friday, and at this meeting many scouts had guests who were eligible to join the organization. Cider and doughnuts were served and all sorts of games played.

Boys over twelve who are interested to join, should get in touch with the scoutmaster.

Hallowe'en Dinner Dance

Residents of this vicinity will miss one of the most enjoyable social occasions of the year, if they fail to attend the Hallowe'en dinner dance, at the Shawsheen restaurant which is to be held tonight, under the direction of the Shawsheen Manor. The Shawsheen restaurant, which seats 400 people and still allows plenty of space for dancing, has been specially decorated for the affair and favors and noise-makers will add to the carnival atmosphere. The Balmoral ten-piece orchestra will play for dancing from seven to one o'clock, and a perfect floor will provide ideal conditions for dancers.

Manager DeAcutis has planned an exceptionally appetizing menu and an extra staff of waiters has been engaged to give service up to the standard maintained at the Manor.

The list of reservations already made include parties from Boston, Lowell and Haverhill as well as Andover and Lawrence. The affair has every indication of repeating its great success of last year.

Marched in Boston

Nearly 150 men and women of the Village went to Boston last night and marched in the big Republican parade held there. They came mainly from the Shawsheen Mill and the Administration building and marched in the Wool Tread division. The trip was made in automobiles.

James R. Bailey, Jr., was chief marshal, and Roy W. Hall was his aide.

Dancing Party

A dancing party will be held next Wednesday evening, November 5, in the November clubhouse, under the direction of Joseph Wright and Edward Dodge of Shawsheen Village. The Delta Chi Omega fraternity orchestra of Boston University has been secured for the affair. Tickets may be obtained at the Balmoral Spa or from Mr. Wright or Mr. Dodge.

KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

Everett Man Fells Two Men in One Day, Injuring Local Man Fatally Near His Own Home

Bernard Sweeney of 222 North Main street was struck and almost instantly killed by an automobile, Sunday evening, about 8:15 o'clock, in Shawsheen Village. The car involved in the fatal accident belonged to D. J. McCormack of 80 Hancock street, Everett. Mr. McCormack was arranged in Andover police court, following the accident, and his case was continued until after the medical examiner's report should be received. The police report that within two hours of the time of the accident in Andover, Mr. McCormack knocked down a man on River street, Haverhill, injuring him so severely, that he was taken to the Hale hospital.

According to witnesses, Mr. Sweeney was returning from Lawrence, and left the car at Shawsheen Village, walking the rest of the way to his home. He was crossing the street to his house when he was struck. Mr. McCormack states that he was driving at a moderate rate of speed, when the man appeared in front of him. Chief F. M. Smith, who was driving from Shawsheen to Andover, at the time, summoned Dr. Griffin of Shawsheen, when he arrived at the scene of the accident, but the man was dead before the doctor arrived. The medical examiner pronounced death due to fracture of the skull.

Mr. Sweeney, who was about fifty-seven years of age, was employed by J. H. Campion, as caretaker. He is survived by his wife, Anne; two sons, Francis and Bernard Sweeney; and four daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Broadhurst, Misses Mary, Jennie and Catherine Sweeney.

A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Augustine's church, Tuesday morning, by Rev. Thomas F. Fogarty, assisted by Rev. Patrick J. Campbell, deacon, and Rev. John A. Nugent as sub-deacon. At the offertory, J. William Mahoney sang "Jesu Salvator Mundi", and at the close the organist, Miss Anna G. Donovan, played Beethoven's funeral march. Burial was in St. Augustine's cemetery.

The bearers were Patrick Egan, James McSwiggan, George Boody, James Kafe, Patrick Brady and John Traynor, all of whom were members of Division No. 6, A. O. H., of which the deceased was a member.

Birthday and Hallowe'en Party
A pretty afternoon party was given on Monday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sherburne, of Carisbrooke street, Shawsheen, in honor of the ninth birthday of their little daughter, Ruth. The affair was a birthday and Hallowe'en party combined, and the home was prettily decorated for the occasion in Hallowe'en colors. Various games were played and dainty favors were received by all the little girls, after which they marched to the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Ruth received many beautiful gifts, and the best wishes of all present who included Marguerite Bartlett, Barbara Payton, Barbara Porter, Janice Wray, Eleanor Winslow, Betty Wade, Barbara Hill, Louise Holt, Margaret Harig, Dorothy McGrath, Florence Dodge and Ruth Sherburne.

The presence of a few of Ruth's group-up friends added much joy to the little girl's happiness, and made her party one long to be remembered by her. These were her two teachers, Miss Sara Campbell and Mrs. Carl Gahan, and Dr. W. D. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Walls, Mrs. James J. Payton and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon S. Brown.

Torchlight Parade
The first torchlight parade that has been held in the town for over twenty years had its start on the Mall in Shawsheen Village, Tuesday night. It was staged by the Republican town committee in connection with the rally in the town hall and while it was not so colorful as those of former years, lacking the costumes that made them popular, it was an enthusiastic demonstration. Headed by the Klitte band of Lawrence, the marchers started from the Mall and headed up North Main street to the square where they disbanded for the rally.

Shawsheen Community Church
Rev. Newman Matthews of the West Parish church will be the speaker at the services held Sunday night at 7.30 in Balmoral hall. Miss Ethel Cole of Andover will be the soloist and the choir will sing "O Lord My Trust Is in Thy Mercy" (Hall). The services are undenominational, and everyone is invited to attend.

Sunday school will be held as usual at 9.30 in Balmoral hall.

ARMISTICE SEASON OBSERVANCES

Harvest Supper Held in Town Hall Under Auspices of Legion and Auxiliary. Robert T. Bushnell to Give Address at Memorial Service on Sunday

A delicious and abundant supper, well served by efficient and obliging waitresses, the elaborately decorated town hall, good music, and a generous patronage by the public, all contributed to the success of the Harvest supper served last night in the Town hall, under the auspices of the Andover Post of the American Legion and its auxiliary.

The hall presented an unusually attractive appearance with its decorations of red and white bunting combined with forget-me-not blue, the American flag and those of the allied nations. Over the proscenium arch, was a white trellis covered with trailing vines of red roses and at the top of each window was a spray of oak leaves. The long tables were laden with good things to eat, baked beans, cold meats, potato salad, relishes, doughnuts, cheese and all kinds of pie and big yellow pumpkins held the fruits of the season.

There was a steady stream of people coming and going, between the hours of five and seven, although the tables were not crowded at any time. Music was furnished by Malcolm Lundgren's orchestra.

The waitresses were: Mrs. William J. Doherty, Mrs. C. J. Bailey, Mrs. Annie Davis, Mrs. Olin Richardson, Mrs. Horace Eaton, Mrs. Margaret Brown, Mrs. Douglas Hutchison, Mrs. John Garside, Mrs. Joshua Hilton, Mrs. Robert Franz, Mrs. Edward Robie, Mrs. Catherine Eastwood, Mrs. Thaxter Eaton, Mrs. Ralph Berry, Misses Louisa Eaton, Moira Murphy, Alice Welch, Emma Cashan, Jennie Barrett, Mary Barrett, Marjorie Markey, Emily Markey, Edith Henderson, Isabel Sirois, Doris Hilton, Marie Sirois and Miss Cook.

The coffee pourers and others who assisted in serving were Joseph McCarthy, Ralph Berry, Austin Reed, Hermon Hilton, Loring Higgins, James Welch, James Fairweather, Thomas H. McElroy and William Rennie.

Those who had charge of the pies were: Mrs. Charles Buchan, Mrs. Charlotte Collins, Mrs. John Sullivan, Mrs. William Rennie and Mrs. Frank Foster.

A. E. Collings had charge of the meat. The supply room was in charge of Mrs. F. C. Cheney, assisted by Mrs. Stephen Gillard, Mrs. George Carter, Mrs. Minnie Rodgers, Mrs. John Alexander, Mrs. George Lawson.

Those who were busy in the kitchen included Mrs. John Henderson, Mrs. Harry Gouck, Mrs. William Henderson, Mrs. Thomas Dea, Mrs. P. H. Markey, Mrs. Timothy McCarthy, Frank Markey, Harry Hilton, Raymond Wilson and Wendell Kydd. During the afternoon a sale of articles from the Disabled ex-Servicemen's Exchange in charge of James C. Barry, was held in the lower town hall. The articles included tufted bed spreads, hand-woven neck scarves and baby blankets, Christmas cards, articles in leather, toys, dolls' furniture, bead work, and articles in silver.

LAWRENCE COLONIAL

A comedy that keeps up its reputation of being a comedy in almost every line that is spoken—that is "Wedding Bells" which will be done by the Colonial Players at the Colonial theatre all next week. It is a clean, wholesome play, like "The First Year," the sort that all the family can go to and laugh at, and get a whole lot of keen pleasure and enjoyment.

In a nutshell the plot is as follows: Reggie Carter has been married, but is divorced by his wife. The cause is trivial and the divorce never should have been asked or granted. He is still in love with his former wife and she with him, but they have separated and to all intents and purposes it is for good and all.

Reggie meets another woman and in some way is inveigled into becoming engaged to her. The date of the ceremony is named, an invitations are sent out. Wife No. 1 hears of it, and she decides that even if she and Reggie must live apart she cannot bear the thought of his living with another woman. So she declares that if there is to be another marriage with Reggie as one of the principals she must be the other principal.

No, Reggie does not love the woman he is about to marry; he does love his first love. But he is in a tight box because he does not know just how to go about the job of ending his second engagement and calling the wedding off. He is a little timid; moreover wife No. 2 (in prospect) is not timid. And there's the situation. It is worked out only after three acts of genuine fun and humor. You cannot help liking "Wedding Bells."

The full strength of the company, with Miss Dana and Mr. Naughton in the leading parts, will present this play for the approval of the theatregoers of Lawrence and the surrounding towns.

PLYMOUTH

It is not any easy matter to animate newspaper characters on the stage and seldom is the trick successfully turned, but J. P. McEvoy has accomplished this feat in "The Potters," Richard Termond's Production, that is at the Plymouth Theatre, Boston, for a limited engagement. J. P. McEvoy's sketches of "The Potters" have become a familiar figure to newspaper readers in many parts of the country, through their regular appearance as syndicated matter. "Pa" and "Ma" Potter, "Mamie," "Bill" and "Red" are the prototypes of middle-class folk, that represent the great mass of Americans, to whom home-ties are the most important thing in the world. "The Potters" is in twelve episodes, the chapters taken from everyday life, that represent the very heart and spirit of the American people. J. P. McEvoy has exhibited a penetrating insight into his latest comedy "The Potters," and his capitalization of their shortcomings, are filled with humor and subtle satire. The play deals with "Pa" Potter, who is truly a representative of the average American business man, and his happenings throughout the day are many. You meet "The Potters," at breakfast, on the street cars, in the office, the fortune tellers, on the porch, in the oil fields, everywhere and anywhere imaginable you meet this representative of Mr. McEvoy's creative family.

Richard Termond has provided an excellent cast of thirty, which is headed by Walter Perkins, who gives a splendid impression of "Pa" Potter, the plodding hen-pecked bald-headed every day business man. Others in the cast are: Mrs. Geo. A. Hibbard, Viola Frayne, Bay Pendleton, Hal Thompson, George Callahan, Miriam Coughlin, George Harcourt, Wilbur Cox, Lizzie Mc-

Call, George Le Soir, Louise Mainland and Dorothy Lyons. The play was staged by Augustin Duncan at the Plymouth Theatre, New York, where it ran all last season, to the capacity audiences, being endorsed by all the Metropolitan critics. Heywood Brown, critic of the New York World, calls this "The year's best comedy."

SHUBERT

Arthur Hammerstein has a reputation for going the full length in all his enterprises, and in the instance of "Wildflower" now running at the Shubert Theatre, Boston, there is not a chance to quibble about the matter. Edith Day, its star, is endowed with admirably rounded attributes. She can sing, she can dance, and she can act with authority, and with it all, she is decorative. "Wildflower," with its great popularity, readily exhibits why it commended itself as a musical play to New York for the long stretch of 62 weeks. Unusually strong in comedy possessions, "Wildflower" has that rarity, a plot that is more than a makeshift on which to hang tunes. Otto Harbach and Oscar Hammerstein 2d, have fashioned a story that holds interest consistently. Around the tale Herbert Stothart and Vincent Youmans have woven a score that singles it out, with its dozen or more hits, for distinction as approaching operetta. And Mr. Hammerstein has seen to it that "Wildflower" has been endowed with trappings that form a fitting complement to the good work of the authors. There is a large house—a pretentious one—nestling in the Alpine shadows, trees laden with rosy apples, and an entrancing vista, stretching away in the background; a villa on picturesque Lake Como; and other beautiful Italian settings to entrap the eye. Through these settings, troops, Edith Day as a quick-spoken young woman who is to inherit the millions left by her grandfather, only if she curbs her temper for six months. Praise of Miss Day at this date seems almost superfluous. In every mood she is charming.

MAJESTIC

Charlotte's Revue is proving a genuine novelty at the Majestic Theatre, Boston, where it will enter on its third week Monday next, November 10, bringing with it the inimitable Misses Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence, Herbert Mundin and Sam B. Hardy and a brightly grouped set of other entertainers. It will be recalled that the Selwyns brought the revue to New York Christmas Eve and that it has run uninterruptedly at the Selwyn and Times Square theatres. Its creator, Andre Charlotte, has been a manager in a field all his own in London for ten years and his entertainment offered something radically new to those who have come to regard a "revue" as a succession of expensive spectacular scenes.

First of all, Mr. Charlotte sent both Miss Lillie and Miss Lawrence to this country together—an act of munificence not yet witnessed in London where each is a star. Also, he made a selection from all of his best skits of the last eight years, providing great diversity in the show.

Miss Lillie was found to possess comic gifts, definitely not suggesting any gifted American, while Miss Lawrence with voice, dancing and marked acting ability scored in another way. One of the high spots of the evening is when Miss Lillie as a comic Britannia sings "March With Me," as others are when Miss Lawrence impersonates a Pierrot and again a Chinese Maid in "Lime House Blues." Both appear otherwise and variously.

Mr. Mundin appears in conjunction with them and in his own sole right. More than a dozen writers and composers are credited with the authorship of the skits of which there are twenty-four, ranging from a song to a complete stage picture.

BOSTON OPERA HOUSE

There is no managerial exaggeration in proclaiming the fact that when the curtain rises Monday night, the 17th, at eight o'clock promptly upon the stage of the Boston Opera House, Boston playgoers will witness the most perfectly presented dramatic ensemble and distinctively substantial and colorful production ever seen upon the local stage, an assertion that can be substantiated by unanimous verdict of the New York City critics, who last season acclaimed the performance and presentation given by Walter Hampden of Rostand's delightful, romantic comedy "Cyrano de Bergerac"—"The crowning achievement of his artistic career."

Mr. Hampden's impersonation of the picturesque, valiant and poetic soldier and philosopher "Cyrano" is not only the outstanding characterization of this decade, but as J. Rankin Towse, the Dean of N.Y. critics, wrote: "The impersonation was original in conception, brilliant and vital in execution, beautifully consistent in all its multiplicity of moods and fascinating alike in its humor, its gallantry, its love making, its picturesqueness and its pathos."

Mr. Hampden in Cyrano demonstrated his right to the leadership of the stage; his Cyrano puts those of all other English performers completely into the shade and is who is inferior to that of the great Coquelin himself."

Mr. Hampden brings to Boston the entire National Theatre production intact together with all the massive embellishments, accessories, accoutrements, supernumeraries, horses, music and effects and a company of players, all of whom were especially selected for their individual adaptability to the role assigned them, thus insuring a uniformity of excellence in the performance that has been compared the equal of the renowned Moscow Art Theatre Company and that of the Comedie Francaise, Paris.

By a personal arrangement with Walter Damrosch, Mr. Hampden will use as incidental music, excerpts from Dr. Damrosch's grand opera "Cyrano" which was produced several years ago at the Metropolitan Opera House, New York City. In an organization of 81 people, there are 42 speaking parts in the cast many of them entrusted to players of acknowledged reputation and artistry, prominently among whom are Jeanette Sherwin, Balial Holloway, Charles Francis, Cecil Yapp, Ernest Rowan, Robert Thorne, Reynolds Evans, Mary Hall, Mabel Moore, Elsie Herndon Keams, Ruth Chorpennig, Thomas F. Tracy, Cedric Waller and William Sauter.

Walter Hampden in "Cyrano de Bergerac" is destined to be the potential dramatic contribution of the season.

WILBUR

Catchy music, clever dialogue, plenty of snap, excellent singing, speedy dancing by a chorus you don't want to miss—and Julia Sanderson—that's "Moonlight." L. Lawrence Weber's musical comedy, which is the biggest hit seen at the Wilbur Theatre, Boston, in many a month. Take a tip—don't miss it. Miss Sanderson heads a splendid cast of principals and a "hot" chorus. From the time the curtain rises to the finale of the last act, the audience was in an uproar. And what catchy music is heard.

The plot winds about a wager of the wealthy host with one of his guests that by means of the "proper environment" he (the host) can make any man and woman picked up at random, fall in love. The host's friends pick the charming Betty (Julia Sanderson) and the oratorically inclined electrician, who is called in to fix the lights. Jimmie, the host, has no little trouble getting the proper two persons into his sure-fire, romance-producing setting, with the most laughable and mixed up results. The whole jumble comes out in a rather unusual way—for musical comedy—as no wealthy bachelor steps in to fall in love with the heroine. But everybody is happy at the end, which is of course, right, according to Hoyle.

The star of the production is, first of all, of course, the ever-bewitching Julia. But Frank Crumit as the butler is a gem. His singing, his dancing, and his irresistible personality won him plenty of well-deserved applause. The first-nighters had nearly as good a time when he was to the fore as he seemed to be having himself.

Louis Simon, as the host, proved an excellent center for the comedy and the singing of Glen Dale and Ann Toddings, and the dancing of petite Helen O'Shea and Sascha Beaumont and Ward Fox, was of the best. Frank Wood, as the electrician was immensely funny. Worth the price of admission alone, was the take-off on the slow motion pictures by Miss Sanderson and Mr. Crumit, in the first act. By means of specially protracted lights and pantomime, the effect of the camera achievement was cleverly reproduced. Another feature worthy of note was the Passing of the Night in which twilight, a storm at night, and sun-up at dawn were achieved by means of lighting effects on curtains and painted screen.

"Say It Again," "Old Man in the Moon," "I Cannot Live Without Love" and "Don't Put Me Out of Your Heart" are the big song hits, but "If I Were of the Hoi Polloi" and "On Such a Night" run a very close second.

Some Impressions of Texas

During my stay in Houston, I was asked what I thought of Texas. My reply was that I was more impressed by its bigness and distances than anything else. I can go further now, and say that the quarantine, on account of the hoof and mouth disease, was even more impressive.

In driving from Houston to Galveston there is a twelve-mile detour in order that no one shall pass near an infected field. All vehicles are stopped at a certain place and the wheels and under parts of machines, and the hoofs of all horses, most thoroughly sprayed with a strong disinfectant. The government pays for it. There had been five herds killed, at that time, some of the herds numbering ten thousand head of cattle. The animals are driven into enormous trenches, and shot and buried, then the infected fields burned. It is a very contagious disease, and it is important that it be checked, because the smaller herds roam about unchecked. It's nothing unusual for the trains to be stopped because of a cow on the track; and in driving outside the city one has to stop and honk-honk, while a few stray cows leisurely cross the road.

All of the flying-fishes are quarantined and no plane can leave the state—a wise quarantine, as a plane might come down in an infected field, then carry the germs to another field.

One can't help noticing the number of divorced people in Texas. They are going to Houston for that purpose now, instead of to Reno. When we met a young woman, we found ourselves wondering how many husbands she had had. Of course, the men say "the southern girls don't stick; I shall marry a northern girl next time." But one who is at all serious-minded can't help wondering what is going to happen to the next generation. One man even went so far as to say that he fully expected the race to die out. But he hadn't been married even once!

It has been an unusually dry season there, no rain having fallen since the last of May. The rainy season was due and people were talking about the "Norther" even as we do of a "Nor-easter"—for that brings cold and rain. It seemed very hot to us, but the people on the streets were wearing suits and overcoats. One Texas woman said, "It's October and they think it's time to put on coats—not because they need them!" Our coats hung in the closet all the time we were there; we didn't need them riding at night. The cotton crop is very poor, on account of the dry weather, and the sugarcane stunted.

I regret to say that a cotton mill from Lowell has started a new mill near Houston, and many operatives have gone down there from Lowell. Applicants for work have been turned away by the dozens; even a Mexican for an applicator work; and of course, labor is very cheap. They will buy the raw cotton, dye it before spinning, and go through all the processes right at the mill, to manufacture blankets. It is all very interesting, but it makes us rather sad that the industries are going from New England.

The people are friendly, but think there is no place in the world but Texas. "All you Northerners are coming down here already; it won't be long before everybody will want to come to Texas," one very ardent young Texan said. But maybe I am as bad, for I never came back to good old Massachusetts from a "foreign" state, but that I feel like falling down and worshipping our hills and trees and green grass, and, yes, even the rocks.

MRS. JOHN N. COLE

Andover's Cross-Country Team Wins Harvard Meet

Walter Holmes of Andover, ex-Melrose High flash, was the star of the Harvard Interscholastic cross-country meet Saturday, on Soldiers Field, in which almost 100 school-boys from 11 preparatory and high schools competed.

Holmes circled the three-mile course twice around Soldiers Field in 13 minutes 59.2 seconds, which, according to Eddie Farrell, is an interscholastic record for the distance at Harvard.

Holmes' Andover teammates followed him to the finish line in short order, giving the private school team the interscholastic title with a score of 60 points.

Doc McCarthy's Arlington High Harriers, which defeated the Harvard Freshmen two weeks ago, finished a close second, with 67 points. The remaining teams finished in the following order: Worcester Academy, 80; Providence Tech, 82; Cambridge High and Latin, 146; Rindge Tech, 149; Worcester High School of Commerce, 172; Stoneham, 181; LaSalle, 209; St. John's, 235; Woburn, 270.

Appointed State Librarian

Robert M. McCurdy of Bartlett street has been appointed as successor to Miss Alice M. Pray as state librarian of New Hampshire, according to a report from the library trustees from Concord, N. H.

Mr. McCurdy is a graduate of Harvard and of the New York Library School.

Dormitories at Exeter to Be Erected by E. W. Pitman Co.

The contract for the erection of three four-story dormitories at Phillips Academy at Exeter, N. H., has been awarded to the E. W. Pitman company of Lawrence and work has already commenced.

Several of the dormitories at Andover, the memorial tower, new recitation building, as well as the new National Bank building are the work of the E. W. Pitman company.

Historical Society Elects Officers

Announcement of plans for a Colonial costume ball to be held on February 23, was made at the annual meeting of the Andover Historical society, held last Friday evening, with Dr. Charles E. Abbott presiding. A lecture on the "Charm of Colonial Chairs" by Rev. Arthur W. Ackerman of New Bedford will also be part of the winter's program.

The past year is the most successful ever enjoyed by the society according to the reports given by the secretary, Mrs. Anne M. Bradley, and the treasurer, George Abbot. As a result of a membership drive, organized by Mrs. Charles E. Abbott, the membership was increased from 195 to 400. Entertainments and whist parties have contributed to the social life of the community, as well as to the Society's treasury. Open house was held at the society rooms through the months of May and June, a privilege particularly appreciated by the school children, who enjoyed their visits, under the guidance of a teacher.

The net income for the year was $682.33, making the surplus which can be used for any purpose more than $1500. In addition to this sum, there are several memorial funds as well as the Carter fund which has increased to $2,724.29.

The following resolutions on the death of Nathaniel Edward Bartlett, prepared by a committee composed of Mrs. Anne M. Bradley, John V. Holt and George T. Eaton, were presented and adopted by the society:

In the late 90's if one had slipped into the store at 28 Cornhill, Boston, he would have found father and son, devoting themselves wholeheartedly and with evident delight, to the needs of book-lovers.

And when the father passed on, the son with the same zest kept up the store to all who frequented the crowded shelves.

Nathaniel Edward Bartlett was loyal to all the best traditions of an educated bookseller, and his training had been thorough, as a Phillips lad, as an Harvard collegian, as an apprentice under his father's guidance.

His love for that which has been in the past, made him a glad worker in historical matters, and so this society makes grateful mention of his services as an officer, and records its sorrow that it can no longer share in his sound and sane advice, for death has taken him from the directors' circle.

The president of the society spoke with regret of the resignation of Mrs. M. S. McCurdy from the board of directors, not only because she was one of the vice presidents of the society and one of its founders, but because she was one of the originators of the idea of forming such an organization.

The report of the nominating committee, Mrs. F. H. Hardy chairman, was read by the secretary and officers were elected as follows: President, Dr. Charles E. Abbott; first vice president, John V. Holt; second vice president, Miss Bell J. Butterfield; treasurer, George Abbot; secretary, Mrs. G. Edgar Folk; custodian, Miss Helen Eaton; counselors for three years, William A. Trow, Mrs. Benjamin K. Bradley; counselors for two years, O. P. Chase, Miss Clara A. Putnam; counselor for one year, Rev. F. A. Wilson.

At the conclusion of the business, the president spent the remainder of the hour discussing the Referenda.

Slight Collision in Elm Square

There was a slight collision in the square Tuesday afternoon at 1:30. Those involved in the crash were F. Noble Griffin of Salem, Harry Stewart of Scituate, Mass., and Carl E. Elander of this town.

Griffin, who has an Oldsmobile sedan, was parked outside of Carl Elander's clothing store. Elander driving a Ford truck, in attempting to turn out, was struck by Stewart's car and thrown against Griffin's machine. With the exception of a slightly dented mudguard on Griffin's Oldsmobile, neither machine was damaged.

November Club Luncheon

Members of the November Club, gathered for the first meeting of the season at the clubhouse Monday afternoon, enjoyed a luncheon given by the board of directors. Following the luncheon, the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. John C. Angus, and routine business was transacted. She then introduced Miss Bertha Everett Morgan, who gave an entertaining program of dramatic readings. Her selections included "Called by Wireless," a scene from "The School for Scandal," "Clothes Make the Man," from Booth Tarkington's "Seventeen," "Sonny's Amos Experience," "The Carol of Calliope," and a group of children's poems: "The Faithless Flowers," "Womanly Qualms," and "The Sugar-Plum Tree." The closing number was Joyce Kilmer's "Trees."

The next meeting of the club will be held on Monday, November 17, at the usual hour. Sydney B. Fay of the faculty of Smith College will speak on "Political Problems of Europe." Afternoon tea will be served.

The department of art will meet with Mrs. James Williams on Monday, November 10, at three o'clock.

The department of literature met with Mrs. Alfred Hall, Bartlett street, on Wednesday, November 5, at half past three.

The department of music will meet with Mrs. John C. Angus on Monday, November 10, at half past three.

The department of drama will meet with Mrs. Henry S. Hopper, Phillips street, on Friday, November 14, at three o'clock.

Dupre Called "The Paderewski of the Organ"

European and American musical critics have been hard put to find enough adjectives to describe the great genius of Marcel Dupre, the French organist, whose appearance in this town on Monday evening, Nov. 24, at 8 o'clock, at the Chapel of Phillips Academy, promises to be one of the musical sensations of the season. The London Saturday Review called him "A Paganini of the Organ," a "Wizard with hands and feet," after his epoch-making concert at Albert Hall, London. American critics have lavished upon him nearly all the adjectives in the vocabulary, such as "amazing," "musical miracle," "unaccountable phenomenon," "profound," "uncanny," "remarkable," "noteworthy," "splendid," and so on. Dupre is preparing one of his most interesting programs for presentation in this town on his appearance here, and no one should miss hearing the man who has been called the "Supreme type of the perfect organist."

In perfection of technique, clarity of performance, variety of tone-color, and purity of style, no organist can surpass Dupre, and few are his equals in his gift of extraordinary memory. In the rare art of improvisation, he stands alone, incomparable, having been termed "Master of Masters."

Henry T. Finck, the noted critic of the New York Evening Post, wrote last season: "Someone remarked: 'Dupre is the Paderewski of the organ'—and he did not say too much." Richard Kuntz, of the Pittsburgh Post, remarked: "Dupre is of the truly great, perhaps another Franck." August Bridle, writing in The Toronto Star, said: "Dupre is to the organ what Casals is to the cello, and what Caruso was in human voice."

Other noted critics have compared Dupre to Hoffman, Kreisler, Heifetz, and even to the great Bach himself and characterized his playing by such superlatives as "exquisite," "unbelievable," "astounding," "sublime," "flawless," "divine," "powerful" and so on.

Free Church Notes

At a large meeting of the Free Church members last Monday evening, it was unanimously voted to call the Rev. Alfred C. Church of Brooklyn, New York, to the vacant pastorate of the church. He is now assistant minister in the Thompson Avenue Congregational Church of Brooklyn, which has the largest membership of any church of the denomination in the United States, and a Sunday School of more than 1400. Mr. Church's leadership of the organizations of the church has given him unusual experience and his coming to Andover is eagerly hoped for. His decision has not yet been received.

Rev. Arthur S. Wheelock returned to town to vote last Tuesday, and in the evening gave an inspiring address to members and friends of the Grenfell chapter, X. B. K., upon the principles of the order.

The people were fortunate who heard Miss Ruth Mitchell's talk on "Alaska" at the midweek service of Wednesday evening.

Her vivid descriptions and the relics of her trip which she exhibited were exceedingly interesting.

The pulpit will be supplied next Sunday by Rev. Merritt A. Farren of the Boston Seaman's Friend Society, Boston.

Colonel Gow Speaks against Child Labor Amendment

Colonel Gow, president of the Boston City Club, speaking before the Men's Club of the South Church last Friday evening, took sides against the proposed child labor amendment to the Constitution and brought forward many convincing arguments.

He considers that the proposed amendment would be an encroachment on personal rights and quoted figures relative to the expense of bureaus necessary to carry out such legislation. According to his figures, comparatively few children are now employed in factories and he regretted that children should be deprived of the opportunity to engage in harmless work which is often better for them than idling. In answer to inquiries as to who was really back of the movement, he named several women who have been active in the work of the Socialist party for years, including Miss Grace Abbott, head of the child labor bureau.

At the close of his address, which was listened to by a large audience, refreshments of coffee and doughnuts were served.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS NEWS

Coming Events at K. of C. Hall

This evening at the Knights of Columbus hall, the big Charity whist party will be conducted with valuable prizes for the winners.

Next Tuesday, November 11, the first of the afternoon whist parties will be held in the K. of C. hall. All ladies of the town are invited.

The annual banquet of the Andover Council, K. of C. and Court St. Monica, C. D. of A., will be held November 13. Edmund J. Brandon, State Deputy and Mrs. Catherine Salmon, State Regent are expected to be present.

Hold Whist Party

A whist party was held at the home of Mrs. Edward McCabe of Chapman court, Monday evening. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake, candy and coffee were served by the hostess.

Those in charge were: Mrs. Edward McCabe and Miss Lucy Lassus. The following won prizes: Mrs. Annie Qualey, finer ale glasses; Mrs. Fred Collins, hand-painted dish; Mrs. Jeremiah Connors, set of towels; Miss Catherine Leary, box of candy; Mrs. Joseph Bouleau, dish; Miss Maude Keefe, flower vase; Mrs. Bracewell, hand-painted vase; Mrs. James Greene, won the consolation.

Court St. Monica to Hold Annual Banquet

The first annual banquet of Court St. Monica, Catholic Daughters, and Andover council, K. of C., will be held Thursday evening, November 13, in the new hall. Every member of both organizations is urged to be present on this occasion. The committee has secured as the principal speakers, Edmund J. Brandon, state deputy, and Catherine Salmon, state regent, and a fine list of entertainers.

The committee is desirous of having the cards returned as soon as possible and not later than November 7.

K. of C. Bowling Notes

The complete list of prizes for the year has been announced by the bowling commission, and as the prizes are valuable, the competition for them is bound to be keen. The following statement has been issued by the commission:

The Curley cup will be held as a perpetual trophy. The names of the winning team will be inscribed on the base. Each member of the winning team will receive one of the Ricard cups, suitably inscribed. The Cregg cup will be awarded to the bowler holding the high average. The David I. Walsh cup will be awarded to the bowler holding the high triple. The K. of C. cups will be awarded to bowlers rolling high single. No bowler may qualify for more than one of these prizes. If a bowler makes more than one of the records for which these prizes are awarded, he must take the prize which is first named on the above list. To qualify for any prize a bowler must roll at least 60 strings. The league will roll 27 matches and a bowler should be willing to roll at least 20 of these to get a prize. Each team will roll every other team six games. Any member may qualify for one weekly prize in each round of nine matches. (Special prize for first week.) To the married man bowling the highest triple in the first week, the B. L. McDonald Coal Company will give one-half ton of coal. To be eligible for this prize any bowler must roll at least six matches in this round.

John Nelligan was the winner of last week's prize for high single, with 120.

Child Health to Be Discussed

The Massachusetts Conference of Social Work will be held at the New Ocean House, Swampscott, November 11, 12, and 13. The conference this year is devoted entirely to child welfare. The aim is to formulate a program to check disease and disability as early as possible in childhood, and to keep children well.

At the opening meeting the health program of the State and Federal government will be outlined, with special emphasis on the ten-year program of tuberculosis prevention in children. Other meetings will take up the questions of dependent and neglected children, delinquency and mental problems.

Some of the prominent speakers will be: Dr. Eugene R. Kelley, Commissioner, State Department of Public Health; Miss Grace Abbott, Chief of the Children's Bureau U. S. Department of Labor; Herbert C. Parsons, Deputy Commissioner of Probation, Boston;

Rev. George P. O'Connor, Catholic Charitable Bureau; and Judge Frederic P. Cabot of Boston.

The Aftermath

There is no longer any doubt as to the voice of the people with regard to the re-election of President Coolidge. The overwhelming vote accorded him last Tuesday emphasized beyond the shadow of a doubt the place that the President holds in the hearts and minds of the voters of this country. Calvin Coolidge, the Man, was re-elected President of the United States—not Calvin Coolidge, the Republican. The victory was one for the personal qualities of a single man, and as such the greatest tribute that the people of a great country could possibly offer.

The scanty following of Senator LaFollette has caused considerable comment throughout New England. While at no time conceded a chance to occupy the presidential office for the next four years, it was nevertheless expected that he would draw a much larger vote than the returns have signified. New Englanders in general over-estimated his power in the West. It is refreshing to learn that this champion of Discontent had so few to carry his standard.

With regard to Mr. Davis, The Townsman feels that he is a man who would be a credit to either party in a high office—that he did not get a greater vote was not due so much to the mismanagement of his own campaign as to the character of his chief opponent.

Within the state the close fight between Senator Walsh and Speaker Gillett reveals the fact again that personal issues played a large part in this year's elections. Likewise it is evident in the attitude taken against such out-and-out old-school bombast as that employed by Mayor James M. Curley in his wild dash for gubernatorial honors. Mr. Fuller, now the Republican head of the Commonwealth, survived the Curley storm admirably.

In Andover, it is evident by the number of blanks on the ballot, that a great many voters were uninterested or did not understand how to handle the eight referendums. In spite of this, the votes registered were very emphatic in most cases. Number Three, the Liquor Enforcement Referendum, was answered in the affirmative in every Andover precinct. The most noticeable effect of this will be the licensing of manufacturers and purveyors of soft drinks within this state.

The Child Labor Referendum scored an emphatic negative in Andover and the state. The Townsman believes that this is significant in pointing out the disinclination of the citizens of the Commonwealth as a whole to allow the Federal government to infringe upon individual rights—especially in a state that has taken the lead in solving the child labor problem.

The Daylight Saving Law is to remain with us. Unlike many other laws passed by the majority vote within a state, this one retains one of its chief disadvantages in that until Daylight Saving becomes a national issue, there will be the confusing and regrettable handicap of changed time within our neighbor states.

Charity Whist Tonight

The committee in charge of the Charity whist to be held this evening in the Knights of Columbus hall under the auspices of the Catholic Daughters of America have arranged a long list of valuable prizes to be awarded to the winners.

In addition to the door prizes, a barrel of apples donated by Joseph L. Burns and a ten-pound turkey donated by James E. Greeley, there will be a $5.00 gold piece, a five-pound box of candy, a beautiful picture, linen, silver and many other desirable articles.

Entertainers have been secured for the affair and large attendance is anticipated. The proceeds will be for the relief work of the society, particularly for spreading cheer at the Christmas season.

School Committee Meeting

The monthly meeting of the school committee was held Wednesday rather than Tuesday on account of election. Routine business was transacted and it was voted to transport the children who come from Lowell Junction to Ballardvale for school. Two persons have offered their services for this week and decision as to which one will do this work will be made later.

The pictures, casts and mouldings in the Richardson school are being cleaned and placed in the new Shawsham school.

The financial statement for the month follows:

General Expense	$618.55
Expense of Instruction	11,165.55
Text Books	1,687.92
Expense of Operation	675.50
Fuel	102.37
Miscellaneous	490.62
Maintenance	430.49
Auxiliary Agencies	215.15
Transportation	741.50
Total	$16,127.65

Christian Endeavor Social

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Baptist church held a five-year-old social Monday evening in the vestry, which proved to be a great success. Members of the society appeared as small children, carrying dolls and other toys. Children's games were played and the refreshments consisted of cocoa, animal crackers and lollipops. The committee: Gladys Denison, Gladys Ricker, Bart Smalley, and Ray Wilson.

Preceding the social a business meeting was called by the president. It was voted to have the annual sunrise service on Thanksgiving morning and plans were also discussed for a Christmas pageant.

Card of Thanks

Those who had charge of the Harvest supper held last evening in the Town hall wish to express their gratitude to all those who contributed in any way to the success of the occasion, to those who contributed food and to the general public who assisted by their generous patronage.

JEMIMA C. HENDERSON,
For the Committee.

Faculty Concert at Abbot Academy

Miss Bailey invites the public of Andover to a music recital at Abbot Academy, on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. The faculty will be assisted at this concert by Arthur J. Bassett, who, it may be remembered, gave an illuminating recital of Edward Macdowell's music two years ago. Mr. Bassett is coming to Andover to play the first movement of Mr. Howe's piano concerto. It may be hoped that his generous interest will be met with a responsive reception.

Miss Nichols will plan an interesting group of solos, and then join forces with Miss Friskin in the Beethoven sonata, opus 30, no. 2. Miss Nichols and Miss Friskin form a powerful combination for sonata recitals, and a magnificent performance is assured.

Miss Friskin will play a Debussy group, which will be more than welcome to all lovers of beautiful and imaginative music. Debussy is no longer one of the moderns—to be respected, and shunned; he is an assured classic.

Mr. Howe will play the Scherzo from the first Symphony of Louis Vierne, and a Toccata by Pjeter Von. The organ symphonies of Louis Vierne are one of the greatest contributions to organ literature.

The program:
Sonata Op. 30, No. 2 Beethoven
Allegro con brio
Adagio cantabile
Scherzo
Allegro
Miss Nichols and Miss Friskin
Scherzo
Toccata
Mr. Howe
Minstrel
La file aux cheveux de lin
Jardin sous la pluie
Miss Friskin
Gavotte
Hymn to the Sun
Berceuse
Village Dance
Miss Nichols
Youth
From Concerto for Piano and Orchestra
Mr. Bassett
Mr. Howe at the second piano

Flying Contest Plans

The height-judging contest which is being conducted by the Andover Fraternal Organizations is now in full swing and as the dates of the contest approach the interest increases.

The committee in charge has secured the services of Harry Jones, one of the best-known aviators in this section of the country. He has a fine record as a flyer and is known to thousands of visitors at Old Orchard, Maine, where he makes his headquarters. The general plans for the contest remain as originally planned. Postals are for sale in many towns and cities in Massachusetts.

Games Needed at the Guild

The Andover Guild is in great need of games for both girls and boys.

Any person having games which they would be willing to contribute to this good cause will kindly leave them at the Andover Guild or Dr. Walker's, Main street.

The sixth annual memorial service for the soldier dead of the World war will be held in the Town hall, Sunday evening, at quarter of eight.

The speakers will be Robert T. Bushnell, assistant district attorney for Middlesex County, and Dr. Claude M. Fuess of this town. Frederick Jones will make an appeal in behalf of the Red Cross Roll Call.

Music will be furnished by the Phillips Academy choir.

On Saturday afternoon, an entertainment will be given in the Town hall at two o'clock, by Herbert Taylor, magician, from the White Entertainment bureau.

The Armistice Day Dance will be held in the Town hall, Tuesday evening, November 11. Music will be furnished by Weldon's orchestra.

Daniel Hart Killed by Train

Daniel Hart, aged thirty-three, of 20 High street, was killed by a train sometime between midnight and 4.30 Tuesday morning. His body was found by a freight train crew about 4.30, near the Harding street bridge. Assistant Medical Examiner George B. Sargent viewed the body at E. M. Lundgren's undertaking parlors.

According to the Andover police, Hart was seen boarding the theatre train, which gets into Andover about 12.17 o'clock, on his way to Lawrence. Whether he fell off the train platform or not is not known, as no one witnessed the accident and the body was not found until morning.

Mr. Hart was thirty-three years of age. He served in the Lawrence postoffice as substitute clerk in December, 1912, and was appointed permanent clerk in October, 1917. He left in June 1918, to serve in the World War. He was granted a leave of absence in June of this year because of ill health. He is married and has one child.

The deceased was a World War veteran, serving in Company F, 73rd Infantry, at Camp Devens, from June 21, 1918, until January 17, 1919.

He was born in Andover in 1891 and had resided here practically all his life. Mr. Hart was married about two years ago to Helen T. Black, daughter of John P. Black, sanitary inspector in the Lawrence health department.

He is survived by his wife, Helen T., and his son, Charles Leo, of Lawrence; his father, Daniel Hart, and mother, Mrs. Mary Hart; three sisters: Kathleen and Mary Hart and Mrs. Margaret McCarthy, all of Andover; and four brothers: John, a mail carrier at the Andover postoffice, Neal, also of Andover, and Charles and Leo, both students at Villanova College.

A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated Thursday morning in St. Augustine's church at 9.30 o'clock by Rev. John A. Nugent, assisted by Rev. Patrick J. Campbell as deacon and Rev. Thomas P. Fogarty as sub-deacon. The choir sang the Gregorian mass. Walter Rowan was the soloist. Inside the altar rail were Rev. Michael A. Sullivan, O. S. A., Rev. Frederick S. Riordan, Rev. Daniel J. O'Mahoney, O. S. A., Rev. Francis X. Ronan, Rev. Philip L. Colgan, O. S. A., Rev. James M. Kelly, O. S. A., Rev. John A. Dorbinsky, O. S. A., Rev. Dennis Donovan of Newton, Rev. John B. Leonard, O. S. A., Brother Charles and Brother Leo from Villanova, Pa.

The bearers were Thomas and James Driscoll, Leo and John Hart, Frank Markey and Leo Sullivan. Burial was in St. Augustine's cemetery. A profusion of beautiful floral tributes and a very large number of spiritual bouquets were received.

Branch Office of Registry of Motor Vehicles Open Next Week

The branch office of the Registry of Motor Vehicles at 268-270 South Broadway, Lawrence, will be prepared to issue the 1925 number plates beginning November 10, 1924.

Magician to Entertain

The townspeople are asked to remember that Herbert Taylor, magician, will be at the town hall Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. The entertainment, which is under the auspices of the American Legion, will be one which the older people will enjoy fully as much as the young folks. Mr. Taylor comes from the White Entertainment Bureau of Boston.

Obsequies

RACHEL CAMERON

The funeral of Miss Rachel Cameron, formerly of Andover, was held in Quincy Tuesday, October 28, at 2.30 p.m. Services were conducted by Rev. J. Caleb Justice of the Congregational church. Burial was in Mt. Wollaston cemetery. The floral offerings were beautiful.

Christ Church Notes

Miss Batchelder addressed the Woman's Guild at their monthly missionary meeting on Thursday. Her work has been in the southern part of our country. Tea was served for the good number present.

On Wednesday night the choir will hold the first of their dances which are planned for the season.

The patronesses will be Mrs. W. Dudley Yates, Mrs. Jerome W. Cross, Mrs. S. H. Bailey, Jr., and Miss Ethel Humphreys. Music will be furnished by Rowland Russell's orchestra of Lawrence.

Tuesday night Phillips Brooks chapter is invited to meet with H. Usher Monro chapter at St. Paul's, North Andover.

The confirmation talks are held in the rector's study each Tuesday at 4.30 and at 7.30 o'clock. Bishop Slattery is expected to visit this parish on the morning of December 7th.

The sermon next Sunday morning was preached during the summer and is to be repeated by request. The subject is "Spruious Standards."

Engagements Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Holt of Shawsham Village announce the engagement of their daughter, Emma E. Holt, to Thomas H. Garside, son of Mrs. Mary Garside of Walnut avenue; also of their daughter, Mrs. Lillian Carmichael, to Everett S. Boutwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester N. Boutwell of West Andover. The weddings will probably take place in the spring.

Formal Opening of New Drug Store Tomorrow

The Hartigan drugstore in the new block at the corner of Main and Chestnut streets will be open to the public Saturday, November 8. The excellent location and attractive equipment has already drawn many customers during the week the store has been open for business and tomorrow Mr. Hartigan will be glad to personally greet his patrons and friends. A suitable souvenir will be given every lady and gentleman.

The store will be under the personal supervision of Daniel A. Hartigan, who has had seventeen years' experience in the drug business, while in the employ of F. H. Stacey. The store is the last word in up-to-the-minute equipment, and is beautifully laid out. The Bangs Co. of Boston has installed its most modern drug-store fixtures of mahogany which harmonize with the newest type of Mexican onyx soda fountain. The fountain is equipped with a "Frigidaire," using no ice, and under this system the creams can always be kept in proper condition.

The store will carry a complete line of high-grade toilet articles, hospital supplies, and drugs, as well as Durand's, Page & Shaw's, Thompson's Spa, Lovell and Covel, and other high type candies. The C. B. Perkins cigar service has been installed, which includes both the popular and high-priced cigars, cigarettes and tobaccos. Mr. Hartigan feels that his experience in catering to the wants of the townspeople has qualified him to please, and he aims to make his store a place of the most dependable prescription business.

Mr. Hartigan is assisted by Joseph O'Connell of Shawsham Village, who was for many years connected with the Simas Drug Company of Haverhill.

Andover Council K. of C. Installs Officers

The newly elected officers of Andover Council 1078, K. of C., were installed last evening by J. Lowe McMahon and Suite of Wakefield. After the installation, refreshments were served.

The officers installed were as follows: Grand knight, Frank McDonald; deputy grand knight, John Pickles; chancellor, John A. Dugan; warden, Henry Dolan; financial secretary, Timothy J. Mahoney; recording secretary, Joseph McCarthy; lecturer, John Cussen; advocate, Clarence Buckley; inside guard, William Tannany; outside guard, Edward Eldred; trustee, John Hurley.

IRELENE MORRISSEY

Irene Frances Morrissey, the seven-year-old daughter of William E. and Monica (Hickey) Morrissey of 12 Burgess road, Oakeside, Methuen, passed away early Tuesday morning at the Barr sanatorium after an illness of eight weeks. She was a pupil in the third grade in St. Rita's school. A sad coincidence is that this week is the thirtieth anniversary of her parents' marriage, and the 22nd of November is her birthday. Besides her parents she leaves a sister, Marguerite, and a brother, Billy.

The funeral was held at the late home Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial was in the family lot in the Immaculate Conception cemetery.

Essex County Boards of Trade to Meet in Andover

The Essex County Associated Boards of Trade will meet on the invitation of the Andover Chamber of Commerce at Shawshien Manor on Wednesday, November 12. Dinner will be served at half past twelve.

Highways will be the subject of discussion, and an act to authorize the Massachusetts Board of Public Works to extend its state highways has been prepared as follows:

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Section 1. The Massachusetts Board of Public Works is hereby authorized to take over, construct, and maintain all trunk lines and thoroughfares between and through towns. This shall be construed as including the extension of present State highways through towns, and include all other trunk lines and thoroughfares not now acquired by the State. It also shall not be construed as affecting the Small Town Act or any other Act whereby towns and cities may petition for aid in the construction of highways. All acts relative to the taking over trunk lines and thoroughfares as State highways is hereby repealed.

This Act shall take effect upon its passage. The purpose of the Associated Boards of Trade in sponsoring such an act is to present later a proposition for the widening and reconstruction of Main street from Andover square to Simpson's bridge.

It is expected that delegates will be present from all the towns in Essex county.

Exhibition at John-Eather Gallery
Beginning on November 20, there will be an exhibition at the John-Eather Art Gallery, of paintings from the Grand Central Galleries in New York City.

This exhibition will be introduced by a lecture on Thursday evening, November 20, at 8:15, to be given by Mr. Jonas Lie, the well-known artist, several of whose works will be shown.

Mr. Lie's lecture will be open to the public, and it is hoped that not only residents of Andover, but of the surrounding towns, will be able to attend, and to enjoy the exhibition.

Abbott Academy Notes
During the absence of Miss Howey, who has been called away by the death of her sister, Miss Louise Sweeney of Lawrence is taking charge of Miss Howey's classes.

On Thursday morning at chapel Dr. G. M. Hirst of Korea spoke to the students.

The service on Sunday evening was conducted by Rev. Charles W. Henry of Christ Church.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Ward have returned to their Brookline home after spending the summer at their farm on Prospect Hill.

Miss Bertha Bailey, principal of Abbot Academy, is attending a meeting of the Headmistresses Association being held in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Amiraull have moved from the house at 40 Chestnut street owned by Michael J. Dowd to the Pitman house on Park street.

Miss Edith Henderson who has been living with her uncle and aunt in Glen, N. H., for several months, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Henderson of Red Spring road.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gray and family have moved from Shepley street, Shawshien, to the house at 40 Chestnut street recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Amiraull. Mr. Gray is employed at the office of the American Railway Express.

The ways and means committee and the fair committee of the Fraternal Building Association are requested to meet in Fraternal hall, Friday evening, November 14, at 7:45 o'clock to complete plans for the fair to be held December 12 and 13.

The Andover Mothers' Club are planning to distribute Thanksgiving baskets to a number of needy families in town. All those interested in this worthy cause may leave whatever contributions they wish with Mrs. Charlotte M. Collins, 13 Bartlett street. The Club hopes for as generous a response as they received last year for the same object.

A number of local people attended the concert and ball given by the Lowell Temple Club in the Auditorium last evening. The Aleppo Temple Band of Boston played for a concert between eight and ten o'clock, and for dancing which followed until midnight.

The trip was made in the touring bus owned by Robert Crockett, Jr. of this town. Those who attended were, Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crockett, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Higginson, Mr. and Mrs. Harlow C. Newell, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Pomeroy, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wadman, Mr. and Mrs. Dana W. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Winkley, Mr. and Mrs. David L. Coutts, Miss Alice Gill and Samuel P. Hulme.

Formal Opening of Hethrington Stores

The Hethrington Stores which have been doing business at the new stand on Main street for more than a week will be open for public inspection on Wednesday afternoon and evening of next week. No goods will be sold at this time. There will be a service of coffee and cakes with music by Boston talent.

At the left of the main entrance to the building, is the grocery store with its shelves piled high with food stuffs. A new Sherer grocery counter fifteen feet long carries 2200 pounds of bulk merchandise and displays more than twenty-two varieties of goods. With this modern equipment it is possible to reduce the time for putting up orders by nearly one half. The side door on Chestnut street at the rear of the store is used for receiving goods, many of which are stored in the basement, also for carrying out goods to the delivery wagons. Kerosene oil is stored in tanks located in a separate basement room from which it may be drawn onto the ground floor into an oil room located near the side entrance.

At the right of the main entrance is the dry goods department where new, narrow mahogany show cases have been installed. At the rear of the store is the bookkeeping department.

Special glass in the windows effectively throws the light to the back of the store and domed electric lights provide for illumination by night.

The basement store, which is the first of its kind in Andover, has a full line of house-furnishings, glassware, tinware and crockery, blankets and household linens. Here is also space for baskets, trunks, aprons, handkerchiefs, art goods and several other lines. Tables for special sales will also be located in the basement.

PUNCHARD NOTES

Freshman Class Meeting

Last Friday the Freshman class gathered to elect its officers. Arthur Veit was chosen president; Paul Simone, vice president; and Arthur Mullen, secretary.

Sophomore-Freshman Reception a Success

The Sophomores' reception to the Freshmen was as successful and pretty a party as has ever been held in Punchard hall. The hall was attractively decorated in orange and black. Everybody present was in costume. Miss Kathryn Herman and Donald Bassett won the prizes for the best costumes.

Main won from the local girls, 38 to 26. Their prize was both beautiful and useful—a cabbage stuck full of flowers.

Brideau Wins Cheer Contest

Rhila Brideau has won the prize offered by the Punch Harder management for the best school cheer. His cheer is the first of the list of cheers recently published.

Senior Class Meeting

Monday noon the Seniors had a class meeting. It was voted to sell feather novelties in the school colors. Emma Daniels was placed in charge.

The treasurer's report was read and approved. Twenty dollars was realized as a result of the dance.

Punchard vs. Exeter

Saturday the Punchard football team goes to Exeter to play. Punchard has not defeated Exeter at Exeter for a long time, but this year Coach Lovely has such a good team that the tables may be turned.

Thursday there was a mass meeting. The songs and cheers were practiced and Capt. Dry spoke and assured the school that the boys would play their very best.

Pinkerton Again Wins

Pinkerton Academy girls came to Andover Wednesday afternoon to play the Punchard high school team in a return match, and again won from the local girls, 38 to 26.

The Punchard girls did some fine work and lowered the score of the visiting team considerably by their able defense. May Fallon made 22 points and Dorothy Trott four points for Punchard while the Pinkerton score was made by Miss Hepworth with 14 points to her credit and Miss Hird with 24 points. There were no fouls called.

The lineup:

PINKERTON: PUNCHARD: B. Hepworth, r.f. r.f., D. Trott

B. Hird, l.f. l.f., M. Fallon

A. McAskill, j.c. j.c., M. Gilbert

A. Zadoncoeur (L. Pillsbury), s.c. s.c., E. Flint

S. Clarke, r.g. r.g., S. McKee

W. Lowe, l.g. l.g., E. Daniels

L. Pelkey, sub

Referee: Miss Bruce of the Lawrence High school. Timer: Mr. Hornby of Pinkerton. Scorer: Miss Viola Cashman.

Eastern Star Holds Dance

Andover chapter, 187, Eastern Star, held a successful dance in the town hall last Friday evening. About seventy-five couples danced to music provided by Bert Siskind's orchestra. During the evening favors were distributed and refreshments of cake, ice cream, and punch were served. The proceeds were for the benefit of the local chapter of the Eastern Star. The committee in charge of arrangements comprised Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. George Wiswall, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wadman.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill, Mr. and Mrs. James Christie, Mr. and Mrs. William Bateson, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Harris, Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. David L. #### FOOTBALL

Andover 13—Lawrenceville 6

In one of the most bitterly contested games ever played on the Lawrenceville field, gridiron Saturday, Phillips Andover's smooth-running, powerful eleven scored a 13 to 6 victory over the undefeated Lawrenceville academy team. More than 8,000 spectators saw the thrilling encounter.

The splendid passing game of the Andover boys carried them through to victory. The visitors kept the locals on the defensive most of the game, but several brilliant thrusts by Lawrenceville compelled Andover to use every bit of strength it had to hold the Jersey scholastic champions.

Burns' great run on the first play was the feature of the game. He grabbed Lawrenceville's kickoff on Andover's 15-yard line and behind splendid interference ran to Lawrenceville's 5-yard line before being brought down. On the next line-up Ward tore through for the first score and Sandberg kicked the goal.

Andover's second score came in the second period when well placed forward passes and short and decisive smashes at the line enabled Frigard to take the ball over.

Lawrenceville's score came in the fourth period when one of Sandberg's kicks was blocked and grabbed by Greene who went over for Lawrenceville's touchdown. The summary:

Punchard 20—Danvers 0

Punchard decisively defeated the Danvers High school team, on the Andover playground Saturday afternoon by the score of 20-0.

The score does not indicate how far outclassed were the Danvers boys during the fray. The game was witnessed by the largest crowd of the present season, and they were treated to a game worth witnessing.

Punchard exhibited a strong overhead game against their heavier Danvers rivals, and time after time forward passes were completed for long gains. In the last period Punchard successfully tried four passes for a gain of 65 yards.

The Danvers team failed to impress although they played hard football. Their slow running backs were stopped before they could get underway.

In the opening period, Punchard took possession of the ball at midfield, and Souter skirted around right end for 20 yards. A pass then from Souter to Stevenson was completed and Stevenson went over the goal line unopposed. Souter kicked the goal.

The second period Punchard again crossed the Danvers goal line. After gaining steadily through the Danvers line, Punchard came within scoring distance and Souter tossed Stevenson a pass, and he ran 30 yards for the second score. Souter failed to kick the goal.

Again in the second period Souter received a punt and made a fine run of 60 yards to the Danvers 5-yard line. On the next play Punchard lost a yard, but Souter then dodged his way through for a score. He also kicked the goal. The score at this point stood 20-0, in favor of the Andover boys.

After a series of line bucks and end runs, Punchard managed to come within scoring range again in the third period, but were held, and Souter missed a field goal from the 15-yard line.

In was in the fourth period that Punchard showed their power in the forward passing game. Starting on their own 35-yard line, Punchard gained a total of 65 yards on four successive forwards. Stevenson went over for his third touchdown of the day on a pass from Souter. The try for goal was missed.

The game ended with the ball in possession of the Punchard team on Danvers' 20-yard line. The lineup:

Schips to Sing in Lawrence

Tito Schipa, the eminent tenor of the Chicago Opera Company who appears at Lawrence, November 17, is a great favorite of royalty. In Madrid, he is always a welcome guest at the royal palace and has enjoyed the special privilege of singing before their Majesties King Alfonso and Queen Alexandra on many occasions.

He has been the recipient of numerous signal honors from the royal pair in evidence of which he possesses an autographed photograph of each. At the request of the queen, who is an Englishwoman, Schipa learned and sang for her "I Hear You Calling Me" and "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling", which of course afforded untold delight to the listener. Two other songs, added to his repertoire for the pleasure of their royal highnesses, were the Spanish "Princesita" and "Ay-Ay-Ay", that have since become so popular here on his Victor records.

Schipa took occasion while in the Spanish capital to visit a bull-fight. He was so amazed that night at the royal opera but that circumstance caused him no alarm. Not so with the King, however, who from the royal box espied the favorite tenor and making vigorous gestures communicated his wish that he guard his throat, for if anything happened to that part of his anatomy, there would be trouble enough later.

Another picture, bearing an inscription of endearment to the young artist, which is highly prized, is that of Massenet, in whose opera, "Manon", Schipa has scored one of the most pronounced successes. He seems to have grasped the true inner meaning of the part of Des Grieux to which he brings an uncommon intellectuality and artistic interpretation. No wonder he loves it and no wonder the composer loved so worthy an exponent. Three years ago, Schipa made a special trip to Paris to sing for the benefit of a monument to be erected to the memory of Massenet.

While in Italy during the summer of 1922, Schipa was made Knight Commander of the Italian Crown by the King of Italy, the distinguished honor being bestowed upon the artist in recognition of his great art as a singer and composer. Schipa has been five years now Knight Commander of the Royal Order of Spain and Portugal, where he was much entertained and feted during his brilliant successes there.

His Lawrence concert is for the benefit of the Lions Club charity fund.

Autos Collide on Reading Road

An unusual accident occurred on the Reading road Sunday about 5:40. The accident involved the occupants of three machines, George H. Campbell of 8 Saunders court, Lawrence; Clarence M. Heather of Auburn, N. H., and David L. Coutts of this town. The machine driven by Heather was proceeding towards Reading and was closely followed by the car driven by Campbell. Coutts, who was coming in the opposite direction, was just approaching the Heather car, when Campbell, in attempting to pass Heather, collided with the car driven by Coutts, and the latter's car hit Heather's Ford.

The cars of Heather and Coutts were badly damaged, but Campbell escaped with a slightly dented mudguard. Nobody was injured.

The accident happened opposite the home of Fred Gould.

SHAWSHEEN SOCCER

Local Team Defeats Lorraine in League Game. Abbot Worsted to Be Opponents Saturday

McNabb, center-forward of the Shawsheen soccer team, was a big factor in the victory of his eleven over Lorraine in a National Soccer League game Saturday afternoon, 4 to 3, played at Pawtucket.

Shawsheen scored twice in the first half. Smith drove in the first goal shortly after the opening and McNabb followed with another.

Lorraine woke up in the second half and Turner quickly scored, but Shawsheen made it 3 to 1 a few minutes later, when McNabb scored. Sibbald and Haigh added one each for Lorraine and McNabb made the final goal.

Leases Flower Shop

The Shawsheen Flower Shop in the Merchants Building has been leased by William C. Campbell of Lawrence, who now conducts a similar store in the Bay State building, Lawrence. The local shop was opened under the new management last Saturday.

Those who know Mr. Campbell's success in the flower business feel assured of his success in his new venture. The usual efficient Campbell quality and service that has marked the Bay State shop will make for the success of the new enterprise.

A lifetime devoted to plants and flowers, 28 years of which was experience in the business in this country is the brief story of W. C. Campbell's career. He was born in Scotland where he learned the rudiments of the art.

Mr. Campbell is a member of the following organizations: Grecian lodge, A. F. and A. M., Lawrence lodge 65 B. P. O. E., Essex lodge K. of P., Lawrence Chamber of Commerce, Necia club, Caledonian club, Home club, Florists' Telegraph Delivery, Society of American Florists and Ornamental Horticulturists and the Scotch Charitable Society of Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell reside on Prospect street, Methuen.

Fire at Arden

Saturday about noon fire broke out in the attic of the home of William M. Wood on North Main street. The Andover fire department made fast time in reaching the Wood estate and did well in checking the flames saving the beautiful residence from possible destruction. The fire broke out at 12:45 o'clock.

William M. Wood has sent the following letter of appreciation to Charles Emerson, chief of the Andover Fire Department:

Charles Emerson, Chief,
Andover Fire Dept., Andover, Mass.
My dear Mr. Emerson:

I would like to take this opportunity to compliment you and the members of your department on the efficient manner in which you handled the fire at Arden last Saturday.

I have been glad to read in the newspapers that your department has received, in accounts of fires, the praise it so richly deserves, and I should like to add my word of personal acknowledgement.

We are fortunate in Andover in having a department so well manned and equipped. I am deeply conscious of the fact that as I sit here writing this, were it not for your efforts, I should be looking at a heap of blackened ruins on this spot, for experts assure me that had the fire gained very much more headway it would have probably been impossible to prevent an almost total destruction of the main house.

Again let me assure you as a fellow citizen of Andover that efficiency of our fire department is a source of pride to all of us.

Very truly yours,
WM. M. WOOD

Pool Tournament

Play has started in the elimination pool tournament for employees of the Administration building. All matches will be played on the tables at the Shawsheen village. The preliminary games will go to 50 points, while in the semifinals and final 100 points will be played. It is hoped at the conclusion of the present tournament to conduct one on a handicap basis. It was impossible to give any handicaps for the present one as the skill of the majority of the players was unknown.

The committee: Arthur W. Dodge, Frank W. Porter and Lester E. Keyes.

Fiery Cross

Residents living on the outskirts of Shawsheen Village toward West Andover were attracted by the flames from a flaming cross shortly before midnight Friday. The cross, said to be about fifteen feet high was set on a small hill. It is believed to be the work of youths observing Halloween.

Police Officer James Walker went to the scene and extinguished the flames. The cross was made of two heavy wooden planks wound with burlap bags and wire.

Fire At Ink Shop

There was a small fire Friday night at the old ink shop and was the result of some youths celebrating Halloween. The fire department made a quick response and the fire was quickly extinguished. A hydrant used by the firemen refused to close after the fire and a small river flowed down the street for a time.

Evergreen Hedge Burns

An evergreen hedge on the Moses Foster estate made a spectacular fire early Wednesday morning. Several alarms were given by telephone, although no one could locate the fire exactly, and before the firemen reached the scene, the fire was burning fiercely.

Fifty gallons of chemical were used with no effect, before the water was turned on and the fire quickly extinguished. The fire started in the portion of the hedge near Allen court and was running toward Elm street. It is thought that the fire started from sparks from bonfires which had been burning during the afternoon.

"THE AMERICAN INDIAN"

Shawsheen Woman's Club Hears Miss Mabel Knight Speak in Behalf of the Red Man

The monthly meeting of the Shawsheen Village Women's club was held Monday evening in Balmoral hall with Mrs. George H. Winslow presiding. It was announced that a bakery sale would be held Wednesday, November 26, at the Boy's club on Haverhill street. Mrs. George L. Graham and Mrs. Albert Moore were appointed delegates to the state meetings of Women's clubs to be held November 19, at the Lowell Auditorium. All members are invited to attend this meeting, and it is hoped that there will be a large delegation from Shawsheen.

If those who are interested in joining book clubs, read classes, either advance or beginners, and millinery classes will hand in their names, arrangements will be made to accommodate all those wishing to join.

The current events club will commence meetings the third Wednesday in January, and Mrs. Lefevre, who gave so many interesting talks last year, will again be the speaker for the series of lectures. Miss Lena Cook is chairman of the community service committee and those interested may get in touch with her. Tickets will be on sale at the December meeting.

Miss Mabel Knight was the speaker of the evening and chose as her subject "The American Indian." Miss Knight endeavored in her talk to correct many false impressions regarding the first American. She has made a life study of the Indian as she proved by her interesting and intelligent talk on the subject. It is her opinion that history books do not do the red men justice. From them one gets the idea that they are savage and wild and uncivilized. Not until the histories have been rewritten, will justice be done the American Indian. Their one thought is to "protect" themselves. This misunderstanding of the red men by the whites, is a source of great sorrow to the Indians and Miss Knight has become a staunch friend of all tribes and is tireless in her efforts to enlighten the white people as to the true facts regarding the Indians.

One Indian chief remarked to Miss Knight, "They call us uncivilized, and yet we do not need the policemen to keep order among them that it takes in your great cities. Our dances are called barbarous and immoral but an Indian man and woman never danced together in their lives and we would not permit our women to look on one of your modern dances. The Indian dances are harmless, even if you do not understand them and the Indians love them, but after twenty-five years there will be no Indian dances. Already the young men are coming back from schools and doing the modern dances."

The signing of the bill last June making every Indian a citizen was a source of great happiness to the red men and a new era is setting in for them. Prior to this they could not sue or be sued in the courts of the country and Miss Knight cited several cases where Indians have been "done" by white men. "The Indians are trusting, honest and very religious," she said, "and they welcome missionaries among them who will practice what they preach."

"The Indians are not dying out, as is the common opinion. There are just as many Indians as ever but they are going to the white men's schools and dressing in the white men's manner and they are becoming less noticeable. You pass them on the street and do not even know they are Indians. The Indians and the whites are intermarrying and it works out very well when the high-class Indian marries the high-class white and the low-class Indian marries the low-class white."

"If it was not for Massachusetts," said Miss Knight, "there would have been no Pilgrim fathers and yet it is common knowledge among the Indians that they were badly mistreated by the Puritans. Massachusetts has one descendant living, an old lady seventy years old who lives in Lakeview, Mass. She is very quiet and has little to say until the Puritans are mentioned and then she will talk for days. She once made a basket large enough to hold what she thought of the Pilgrims, and it was about the size of a thumb."

Miss Knight is a friend of all Indian tribes and is known by all. She has lived among them for weeks at a time and because of their respect for her several tribes have given her Indian names. At one time she was the only white woman in a camp of 1400 Indians, and she says she was safer than if she had been walking along the street at home. At this time she was the guest of the Omaha Indians who were holding an annual ten-day celebration and feast. They are all farmers and meet at this time every year and live in wigwams and wear the Indian costume. The Indians love their blankets and during this celebration, no matter how hot the day they may be seen with them thrown over their shoulder. At other times they dress in ordinary clothes. Miss Knight sang several songs in Indian and did the Indian war dance, marriage dance and several others. She was dressed in Indian clothes which were made for her by the various tribes.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by the following hostess committee: Mrs. C. B. Robbins, Miss Mary A. Robinson, Mrs. Charles F. Sawyer, Mrs. Albert A. Shauke of Lawrence, Mrs. George Shultz, Miss Myrtle Shattuck, Miss Percy R. Shaw, Mrs. Arthur Sherburne, Mrs. Edward Silva, Mrs. Henry J. Simmons, Mrs. George A. Sirois, Miss Isabel V. Sirois and Miss Marie A. Sirois.

Trains Delayed When Cylinderhead Blows Off

Inbound Boston trains were delayed for three quarters of an hour Monday afternoon when a cylinder head on the engine of the train that leaves Shawsheen at 4:33 blew off. The train had not gone more than three hundred yards from the station when the accident occurred. Another engine was rushed from Lawrence which was forced to pull the train back to Lawrence where it was switched over and attached to the front of the train.

Abbot vs. Shawsheen Saturday

Shawsheen will entertain their old rivals, Abbot Worstod, on Saturday at Balmoral field in a National League game. The teams have met once this season at Graniteville and after a fast and exciting game the score at the finish stood at two goals each.

Both teams will put their best on the field for this game and many will be on hand to watch Jack Corrigan against his old club mates. The Abbot team have rounded into a fast moving machine and at present are putting up a fine exhibition of football. Most of Shawsheen's injured players are again ready for play and will appear in the game Saturday. The local team will be the strongest that Shawsheen has had for weeks. The game is scheduled to commence at 3 o'clock and a record crowd is expected.

Dinner Dance at Shawsheen Restaurant

The Shawsheen Restaurant on Haverhill street was the scene of a brilliant Halloween dinner dance last Friday evening. The affair was under the direction of the management of the Shawsheen Manor, who spared nothing to make it the success that it was. The restaurant was elaborately decorated with autumn leaves and orange and black crepe paper and balloons, and noise-makers greatly added to the gaiety of the party. Booths were arranged along the sides, giving ample space for dancing in the center.

The Balmoral ten-piece orchestra played for dancing until 1 a.m., and a fine dinner was served from 7:30.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Waugh, Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wing, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Edington, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Livingstone, Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. ### Shawsheen Community Church

The usual Sunday evening service will be held at 7:30 in Balmoral hall. Rev. E. Victor Bigelow of the South church will be the preacher. Mrs. Frederic Moore will be the soloist and there will be music by the choir.

Sunday-School Teachers to Meet

There will be a meeting of the Shawsheen Village Sunday-school Teachers' association on Monday evening, November 10, at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Garfield S. Chase, 367 North Main street. All members are requested to attend.

The Red Cross, each year, provides glasses for the school children with faulty vision, where, upon investigation, it is found that parents can not possibly meet the demand.
